A Book of Coincidence. A Book of Coincidence, and its more recent incarnation, A Little Book of Coincidence is a compilation of astounding geometrical relationships put together by John Martineau. The first book is essentially out-of-print, but the second was published in 2001 and is available in most book stores [in the USA, Walker and Company,...

A Book of Coincidence - Halexandria

In fact, I am really wondering why this book was not made into a movie. the premise was interesting - a writer interested in writing about coincidences, and finds a big one in his own life. and that one coincidence leads him into some deep philosophical speculations about the nature of life itself.
