Entrepreneurship is the process of designing, launching and running a new business, which is often initially a small business. The people who create these businesses are called entrepreneurs. [need quotation to verify] Entrepreneurship has been described as the "capacity and willingness to develop, organize and manage a business venture along with any of its risks in order to make a profit".

The review, therefore, confirmed Blackman and Seagal's (1991) view that the task of creating a typology that shows all the possible links that could occur between universities and industry is an extremely difficult one. However, the framework proposed by Bonarccorsi and Piccaluga (1994) was found to be relatively broad in scope and considered suitable for adoption for this research.
